

Prayer

Prayer is about a relationship with God, not following a religion. God doesn't just want to hear from you when you need something or when you're in trouble. He wants to hear about your joy, your questions, even your anger and disappointments.

In those days when you pray, I will listen. If you look for me wholeheartedly, you will find me.
Jeremiah 29:12

Depending on the season you are in, this may mean talking to God in the shower or on your way to work. It's truly not about the amount of time, but it's about quality time.

Strive to be real and raw with the Lord during your prayer life, not perfect. He doesn't need to hear all the "thou's" and "thus's", He just wants to hear YOU.

The LORD is close to all who call on him, yes, to all who call on him in truth. Psalm 145:18

Seek His face in all you do throughout the day. If we do that, no matter the circumstances, everything will miraculously fall into place.
